For the McKinley Memorial.

Postmaster Arment has received from the McKinley National Memorial association a limited supply of the certificates which have been prepared for distribution to contributors to the monument fund us souvenirs of their participation in that great enterprise. The certificate is a heautiful work of art on which is given an excellent reproduction of Mrs. Mc-Kiuley's favorite likeness of her husband, together with a picture of the McKinley home in Canton and of the White House. The wording below the illustrations is as follows: "This certifies that contributed to the fund for the erection of the national memorial at Canton Onio, in honor of William McKintey.' The workmanship and artistic effects are of the very highest order, the great house of Tiffany & Co., New York, being the designers and manufacturers. The supply in the hands of Postmaster Arment is a portion of the first edition of the certificates is sent here to enable those who have not us yet contributed to do so Parties who have already identified themselves with the movement will re ceive souvenirs direct from the office of the association of through the local committees.

A party composed of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hoxl, Wm, Maddox, and Misses Emma and Anna Bader, Jessie Kelsey and Stella Stofer went to Raton, N. M., Monday pight to attend a dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Herby have moved to rooms at Mrs. Crawford's.

An Unprecedented Proposition. The latest and most revolutionary innovation in journalism, made by The Star, is the addition of a regular morning newspaper-The Kansas City Timesand the furnishing of evening, morning and Sunday editions to its readers without increase of price-13 newspapers a week for 10 cents-by carrier delivery o by mail. This unprecedented proposition, which was an untried experiment in October, 1901, premptly demonstrated itself to be a success. First offered only to The Star's readers in Kansas City and its immediate suburbs, it is now extended throughout the whole range of 'The Star' circulation. Evening, Morning, Sunday,
